The performance of Barberou the bleycle at the theatre Monday and Toway was a wonderful display of whoselonauchin and was theroughly appreciated by the stall ence and especially by the "hadden who were present. Mr. Barber will be here again July 10, and so doubt all wheelings who missed the last performance will see him them.

The regular run of the Salt Lake cycling club takes place tomorrow evening, start-ing from Pembroke's at 7 p. m. New wheelmen will please remember there will be no scorching, and should turn out in force.

The last run of the cycling club was a nesurely spin to Liberty Park through the ancesst of the park to the penitentiary road and a return over the west drive. A foracious looking bull dog was encountered ferocious locating bull dog was encountered in the lane and made atraight for the Star bicycle, whose rider, while appreciating the distinction, did not wait to leasn the nature of his doship's interest, but made good time in getting out of the way.
